Initial Report

Officer P05 RAYMOND, SARAH L. Date 12/21/2014

I, Sgt. Raymond, spoke to Julia Eickmeier on the phone in reference to a complaint she had. Julia called and wanted me to go and arrest Kevin for disturbing the peace. I asked her to explain what she was talking about and the following is a summary of what she told me. Julia said that it is Kevin's scheduled day for visitation and he was supposed to come and pick up the child, Madeline Kramer, around 10am. Kevin did not show up until about noon and that was when the child was supposed to be sleeping. Julia said that she wanted Kevin arrested because him waking her up to take her is "disturbing the peace". I attempted to explain to her that him picking his child up on his scheduled day while she was napping was not a criminal act. I also told her that she calls us every time Kevin has the child and she told me that wasn't true. I explained to her that I would document her complaint but that I was not arresting him as he did nothing criminal.

Julia became upset with me and said that we don't ever do anything to help her. She then told me that Kevin's mom molests her child. I explained to her that complaint was investigated and found to not be true. She then told me that Kevin is on drugs and she is concerned for the safety of her child. I told her that if she wanted us to go check on the child, like we do every other time she calls, that we would. She told me it wouldn't matter unless we gave him a drug test. I tried to explain that we could not do that but she just continued saying she wanted him arrested for "disturbing the peace". She also told me that Kevin wanted to take Madeline for a ride to help her sleep and Julia told him no. I again told her I would document the complaint but that was all I was doing at this point. She was told to call if he comes back to her residence and causes a problem.

Kevin then called later and said that he has been denied visitation with his daughter by Julia. He told me that he was supposed to get her at 10am today and he called Julia and said he wouldn't be able to get her until around 1pm. He went over to Julia's house around 1pm to pick her up and she got tired. Kevin suggested he take her for a drive to help her sleep but Julia would only allow this if Julia was allowed to drive and go with them. The three then went for a drive and the child fell asleep. Kevin then left and called Julia back around 430pm and asked to come get the child as he was supposed to have her until 6pm. Julia told him he could come to her house and see her and that he wasn't taking her to his house. If he didn't want to come to her house and visit her then he couldn't have her.

Kevin explained that Julia only lets him see the child if she can be present during visitation. The court ordered paperwork does not say this. I asked him why he doesn't follow the court order as it says and he said it is easier when dealing with Julia to just let her have her way. I asked Kevin why he didn't pick the child up at 10am and he said he worked last night so he wasn't able to get her that early in the day as he needed to sleep. I suggested he start to follow the court order as it says and exactly how it reads. I then asked Kevin to come to the police station with the court order so that we had a copy on file and he said that he would.

A short time later Kevin entered the station and I brought him into the interview room. I read the order and it states he is to get Madeline every Thursday from 10am to Friday at 6pm and then every other weekend starting Friday 6pm until Sunday 6pm. I asked Kevin if he follows this and he said that he does as much as his jobs allow him. He explained that Julia is trying everything in her power to get him to sign the rights of Madeline exclusively over to Julia and he is not going to do that. Kevin said every time he takes her from Julia's house, Julia makes some absurd complaint about him and his parents. I explained to him that was all documented.

I told Kevin that he needs to start following the court order as it says. I also told him that every time Julia with holds Madeline from him he needs to call us. I told him if Julia won't let him take her to his own house or where he wants, he needs to call us. His next visitation is Christmas day, Thursday from 10am to 6pm. I told him that when he goes to pick her up if Julia won't let him take Madeline he needs to call us right away. If Julia still with holds Madeline I will add the complaint to this report and forward this to the State's Attorney office for review of possible charges for Unlawful Visitation Interference. Kevin said that was not what he wanted to happen but he feels this may be the only way to get Julia to allow him to let Madeline into his life. I told him to call if this happens on Thursday and he said he would.

I've attached the court order paperwork to this report. Kevin asked that I call Julia and tell her he is going to pursue charges if she keeps with holding Madeline from him. I told him I would. I attempted to call her and she did not answer and her voice mail box was full. I'll try again on Wednesday.

Date 12/25/2014

Kevin called the station to report that Julia is again with holding Madeline from him. He was scheduled for visitation today from 10am to 6pm as today in a holiday as well as his scheduled day. He said that he went to pick up Madeline at Julia's residence and Julia is not home. He attempted to call her several times with no answer. Kevin said that her voice mail box is full and he can't even leave a message. He asked that I document this and send it to the State's Attorney Office for a review of possible Interference with Visitation violation. I told him that I would and to call back if he gets a hold of Julia. I'm sending this report for review of possible charges against Julia.

Officer P12 MARK A. CREDI

Date 01/02/2015

I, Officer Credi, responded to Eickmeier's residence with Kramer to see if Kramer could pick up his daughter, Madeline, for the court ordered visitation. We arrived and did not see Eickmeier's car. We knocked on the door several times with no answer. Kramer wanted it documented that again, Eickmeier is keeping his daughter from him during his scheduled visitation time.
